Re: United States v. Gary Santoro
07 Cr. 860 (VM)

Dear Judge Marrero:

The defendant in the above-referenced matter has arranged, through his counsel, to surrender voluntarily this morning. I am informed by Your Honor's chambers that the defendant's presentment and arraignment have been referred to the Magistrate Judge on duty. After this case was indicted and assigned to Your Honor, the Government made an application to seal the Indictment until further notice, which application was granted by the Court. Given the circumstances of today, the Government now asks that the Court unseal the Indictment so that the defendant may be presented and arraigned, and so that the case can move forward. Accordingly, a proposed unsealing order is enclosed for Your Honor's consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

MICHAEL J. GARCIA
United States Attorney
Southern District of New York
